Seniors End School At All-Night Party

Final Fling For Seniors Grooms Dawn

The solemn ceremonies of graduation over, new graduates and their dates headed for the Hollywood Riviera Club, where an all night party had been slated for the Senior class of '55 by the PTA, Thursday, June 16.

Dancing, swimming, ping pong and other activities were on the evening agenda. Also highlighted for the evening was a breakfast of ham, eggs, orange juice, coffee, and rolls. The meal was served around 3:30 a.m. and the majority of the guests welcomed it with open mouths.

Faculty members were on hand to supervise the evening's events.

The party was, for some, the last time to get-together with their class, and remember the events of the preceding year. It also was the climax of nine months of academic preparation for graduation, the beginning of college life or service in the armed forces, and the end of approximately nine weeks of social events, beginning with a trip to Catalina, the Junior-Senior Prom, Senior Breakfast, and the Mothers' Tea.

Several Saxons, Tartars Working At Summer Jobs

All vacationing Tartars and Saxons won't be enjoying the healthful rays of "old sol" while basking on the beaches this summer. Many will be accumulating those much desired "forty pieces of silver."

This task will be done by various forms of manual labor, such as George Hurly, who will help shopping housewives with their daily grocery purchases at Jim Dandy market.

Judy Slater is another who will be exerting her energies in the form of work. She is employed at a dime store in Redondo, and will use her earnings to take a trip to Hawaii sometime in December.

Dee Gibson, can be found at Torrance Park assisting in the recreation department.

Any THIS student wishing to let the HERALD know of his summer activities may phone Thelma Smith at FA 8-4000.
